

Third Grade Newsletter

November 12th -13th

Skills of the Week:

Math: Multiplication

Language: Possessive Nouns

Reading: Biographies- Main idea/details, finding answers in the text, point of view, making inferences, text features

Spelling/Vocabulary: prefixes over-, under-, and in- (Spelling and Vocabulary Test will be Fri., Nov. 13th.)

Social Studies/Science: US Government, Veteran's Day, and Constitution

Reminders and Important Dates:

*Please sign and return report cards and the Student Residency Form sent with report cards.

*Our Thanksgiving meal from the lunchroom (students only) will be on Thurs., Nov. 19th.

*Nov. 23rd and 24th have been changed to E-learning days. I will send more info about this later.

*Boosterthon will resume on Nov. 30th, and the Fun Run will be on Thurs., Dec. 3rd.

*Progress reports will go home on Nov. 30th.

Homework:

Read for 15 minutes every night,
Study spelling/vocabulary words, Study set 1
multiplication facts

Vocabulary:

This year, our spelling words will also be our vocabulary words. We will be focusing on prefixes and suffixes, and how they affect the root word.

This week's skill: over-, under-, in-

over-on top of or too much (overthrow- to throw too much)

under-below or not enough (undercook- not cooked enough)

in- in or not (insane- not sane)

Spelling Words:

overlook overlap overboard overcoat
overthrow undercover undercook underground underpass underwater invalid
inside input incorrect insane

Tests:

Friday- Reading Comprehension Test, Spelling Test, Vocabulary Test, and Set 1 Test 2 Multiplication

Test- I will count the highest grade from the 2 tests taken.

(see yellow page in your child's binder.)

